REMARKS / ARGUMENTS

In amended Fig. 2, one of the original reference numbers 05 has been amended to 06.

In the specification, the term "harrow" is a typo and the correct word should be "hollow". Therefore, paragraphs [0005], [0024] and [0025] have been amended to correct the typo. I also found that there is a typo in line 2 of paragraph [0023] of page 6. The reference number of the clutch bracket should be 26 instead of 06. Therefore, paragraph [0023] has been amended to correct the typo. Further, the term "riverts" is a typo and the correct word should be "rivets". Therefore, paragraphs [0005] and [0023] have been amended to correct the typo.

In the claims, the term "harrow" in claim 1 is a typo and the correct word should be "hollow". The term "riverts" in claim 1 is also a typo and the correct word should be "rivets". Therefore, claim 1 has been amended to correct the typos.

The examiner also considers that the clutch bracket (6) is stated to have "at least one hole" in the claims and that from the drawings it appears that it can have only one hole, and thus the specification and claims are not supported by the drawings. Please kindly take note that the reference number for the clutch bracket should be (26) instead of (6). According to Fig. 2, there are 3 holes on the clutch bracket (26) for 3 set pins (25) to go through. It should be obvious to a person skilled in the art that the number of set pins can vary and thus the number of holes on the clutch bracket can also vary. Therefore, the drawings should be able to support the claim that the clutch bracket has at least one hole. I trust that your objection to my claim on the part of the clutch bracket should be a misunderstanding caused by the typo in the specification. I apologize for any inconvenience caused.

Applicant respectfully requests that the examiner proceeds to analyze the claims as to whether they are patentable over the prior art.

Respectively submitted,
